

OUR BUSINESS MEN

there's not a set of men connected with a firm on Kauai, who transacts more business than these faithful county workers do each month, and well do they deserve all credit. In this building, too, the Board of Supervisors holds its monthly meeting, at which in absolute harmony, the affairs of the county are regulated.

Lihue's Bank:

The Manager of this most substantial banking house, is Mr. Frank Crawford, who, we are also pleased to chronicle, is our postmaster.

Mr. Crawford has been a resident of Lihue for a number of years. He assisted in drawing plans for the bank, and now has the satisfaction of presiding over a business which has within the last few years, increased by leaps and bounds. Manager Crawford is a man of integrity and is without question one of the best posted and most conservative business men on Kauai.

The Kauai Garage

J. A. Hogg, manager of the Kauai Garage, has by far the nearest garage on Kauai. Manager Hogg now and then does a rent business, but is, strictly speaking, in the sales business. He has a complete repair shop in connection with his garage. Mr. Hayselden, an expert on gasoline engines and autos has charge of the shop while Manager Hogg takes particular pains to personally oversee everything which comes from or goes to his garage. Manager Hogg is a firm, frank and a most estimable business man, which gives his concern the reputation of being one of the most reliable on the island. In addition to managing the affairs of the garage, he is Superintendent of the Kauai Telephone Co.,

The Kauai Telephone Co.

The Kauai Telephone Co., is the busy firm of the island, with its net-work of wires, stretching from Mana to Haena, like gigantic spider webs on the dewy morning grass. Few there are who realize the attention required to keep these long lines in repair. The rapidity with which breaks are mended and disconnections are made, indicates Superintendent Hogg's keen-eyed alertness for pilikias. The lines are all kept in splendid repair and the service cannot be beaten.

The Lihue Central:

Right here let us pause for sufficient time in which to pay a passing compliment to the Lihue Central, who, notwithstanding the knocks and hasty expressions of nervous people, is always as serene as a mill pond—never so disturbed or impolite as to neglect an accommodation for a subscriber. Truly she has the patents of Job and the forbearance of an angel. The young man who holds the switch board on the night watch, is none the less attentive to his duties and is equally deserving of highest praise.

Lihue's Ice and Soda Works:

"How would you like to be the ice man?" Well, if we could only freeze on to such a successful plant as A. D. Hills manages, we would like it immensely. Even to think of a cake of ice these sweltering days is some consolation, but what is it compared with a whole ice plant and a big soda water works combined. If we were there this minute, the whole works would certainly suffer a considerable loss.

For years, Mr. Hills has managed this very prosperous manufacturing establishment, and whether from association, or what not, he has become one of the most cool headed and well known business managers on Kauai.

The Kapala Store:

The Kapala Store, with its handsome new edifice, its modern improvements and immense stock of general merchandise, stands as a landmark to the name of J. B. Fernandes, who began business here a number of years ago in a very small way. Courtesy, honesty and perseverance have won for Mr. Fernandes, a standing in the community which could not have been gained otherwise. He is a small, quiet and unassuming man, and takes much pride in the neatness of his store. Mr. Sousa is his head assistant while each employee of this large store is an experienced man in his line, and Manager Fernandes is to be congratulated on his ability to select men of their character in assisting him in the administration of his constantly increasing business.

The Kauai Shinpo:

The Kauai Shinpo Sha, is situated in Kapala, and is the only Japanese newspaper on Kauai. It is a weekly and edited and managed
